PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Emerge Energy Services LP's (the "Partnership's") has determined that it is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2019 (the "Form 10-Q") in a timely manner and that it does not expect to be able to file the Form 10-Q within the five-day extension permitted by the rules of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). As reported in the Partnership's Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on July 17, 2019, the Partnership and certain of its subsidiaries filed voluntary petitions seeking relief under chapter 11 of title 11 (the "Chapter 11 Cases") of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Bankruptcy Court") on July 15, 2019. Due to the demands associated with the Chapter 11 Cases and related activities, the Partnership's management needs additional time to review and evaluate the Partnership's condensed consolidated financial statements and needs to attend to the bankruptcy filings. Such needed additional time could not be obviated without incurring unreasonable effort or expense.

Forward-Looking Statements

This notification contains "forward-looking statements." Such statements reflect management's current expectations based on currently available operating, financial and competitive information, but are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated in or implied by the forward-looking statements. Risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could affect our

All forward-looking statements included in this notification should be considered in the context of these risks. Except as required by law, we undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
