Emerge Energy Services Announces Second Quarter 2018 Results

Fort Worth, Texas — August 1, 2018 — Emerge Energy Services LP (“Emerge Energy”) today announced second quarter 2018 financial and operating results.

Highlights

- Total volumes sold increased 6% sequentially to a record 1,589 thousand tons in the second quarter.
- Net income of $9.4 million and diluted earnings per unit of $0.30 for the second quarter.
- Adjusted EBITDA increased 34% sequentially to $23.4 million for the second quarter.

Overview

Emerge Energy reported net income of $9.4 million, or $0.30 per diluted unit, for the three months ended June 30, 2018, compared to a net loss of $6.1 million, or $(0.30) per diluted unit for the three months ended June 30, 2017. For the three months ended March 31, 2018, net income was $1.5 million, or $0.05 per diluted unit.

Net revenues were $101.8 million for the three months ended June 30, 2018, compared to $82.6 million for the three months ended June 30, 2017, and $106.8 million for the three months ended March 31, 2018. Despite the 6% increase in volumes sequentially in the second quarter, net revenues decreased due to a decrease in the higher priced, terminal sales volumes. Volumes sold through our terminals totaled 26% of volume in the second quarter of 2018, compared to 39% in the first quarter of 2018.

Adjusted EBITDA was $23.4 million for the three months ended June 30, 2018, compared to $7.5 million for the three months ended June 30, 2017, and $17.4 million for the three months ended March 31, 2018.

Emerge Energy generated Distributable Cash Flow of $17.3 million for the three months ended June 30, 2018. Adjusted EBITDA and Distributable Cash Flow are non-GAAP financial measures that Emerge Energy uses to assess its performance on an ongoing basis. Emerge Energy will not make a cash distribution on its common units for the three months ended June 30, 2018, as the board of directors of its general partner did not approve a cash distribution.

“We delivered solid results in the second quarter,” noted Ted W. Beneski, Chairman of the board of directors of the general partner of Emerge Energy. “Our total volumes sold improved by 6% sequentially to 1.6 million tons, and our Adjusted EBITDA increased by 34% sequentially to $23.4 million as higher sand prices, an increase of in-basin sales at our San Antonio and Kosse plants, and lower logistics costs boosted our margins.”

“The demand for frac sand remains healthy, but we experienced a minor slowdown to finish the second quarter, and the softness has partially continued into early third quarter. Conversations with our customers indicate that the conditions are temporary given the Permian takeaway constraints. However, we acknowledge that the frac sand industry faces a state of transition with the utilization of new in-basin plants increasing throughout the year. As a top five producer in the frac sand industry in the United States, we believe we are at the forefront of diversifying our business model to meet the new needs of the industry with both northern white and in-basin capabilities.”

“Demand for our San Antonio product is very strong, and we have made considerable progress on customer contracting by executing several agreements. San Antonio production volumes increased in the second quarter, but we incurred a two-month construction delay at the new dry plant. We are now expecting completion in late-August, so the San Antonio volumes should improve significantly in the third quarter. Also, we are now highly confident that we will receive the new NSR permit by late-August, allowing us to expand the plant to the ultimate 4.0 million tons per year capacity by the end of the third quarter this year.”

“We are excited about our previously announced new Oklahoma facility. We continue to work through the permitting process and expect to break ground on the new plant by mid-August. With the 1.5 million tons of new capacity at this plant, our total in-basin capacity will be 6.1 million tons, or approximately 50% of our total frac production capacity.”

“Finally, due to the San Antonio construction delay, we are updating our 2018 full year guidance to $110 million for Adjusted EBITDA and $50 million for net income. Despite the delay, we are nicely positioned for a strong second half of the year.”

Conference Call

Emerge Energy will host its 2018 second quarter results conference call on Wednesday, August 1, 2018 at 3:00 p.m. CT. (b) Emerge Energy commenced frac sand production at the San Antonio facility in July 2017.

Continuing operations

Net income (loss) improved $7.9 million for the second quarter of 2018, compared to first quarter of 2018, mainly due to one-time non cash charges of $3.9 million write-off of deferred financing costs relating to the reduction of our revolving credit facility, and $1.7 million to write off the land owner agreements and related prepaid royalties incurred in the first quarter. We also incurred a one-time charge of $1.1 million of professional fees related to the refinancing in January 2018. Net income also improved in the second quarter of 2018 due to increased prices and higher volumes at our San Antonio and Kosse facilities. Volumes sold through our terminals totaled 26% of volume in the second quarter of 2018, compared to 39% in the first quarter of 2018.

Adjusted EBITDA improved $6.0 million for the second quarter of 2018, compared to the first quarter of 2018, mainly due to higher sand prices and increased volumes in the second quarter and a $4 million payment of deferred expenses in the first quarter.

Net income (loss) improved $15.5 million and Adjusted EBITDA improved $15.8 million for the second quarter of 2018, compared to same quarter in 2017, mainly due to an increase in total volumes sold, higher prices, and lower production costs on a per-ton basis. This was offset by increased selling, general and administrative expenses due to increased staffing in 2018.

Discontinued operations

During the three months ended June 30, 2017, we recorded a non-cash charge of $2.7 million related to the August 2016 sale of the Fuel business.

Capital Expenditures

For the three months ended June 30, 2018, Emerge Energy’s capital expenditures totaled $25.7 million.

Adjusted EBITDA and Distributable Cash Flow

We calculate Adjusted EBITDA, a non-GAAP measure, in accordance with our current Credit Agreement as: net income (loss) plus consolidated interest expense (net of interest income), income tax expense, depreciation, depletion and amortization expense, non-cash charges and losses that are unusual or non-recurring less income tax benefits and gains that are unusual or non-recurring and other adjustments allowable under our existing credit agreement. We report Adjusted EBITDA to our lenders under our revolving credit facility in determining our compliance with certain financial covenants. Adjusted EBITDA should not be considered as an alternative to net income, operating income, cash flow from operating activities or any other measure of financial performance presented in accordance with GAAP. Moreover, our Adjusted EBITDA as presented may not be comparable to similarly titled measures of other companies. The following table reconciles net income (loss) to Adjusted EBITDA for the three months ended June 30, 2018, March 31, 2018, and June 30, 2017:

We define Distributable Cash Flow generally as net income plus (i) non-cash net interest expense, (ii) depreciation, depletion and amortization expense, (iii) non-cash charges, and (iv) selected losses that are unusual or non-recurring; less (v) selected principal repayments, (vi) selected gains that are unusual or non-recurring, and (vii) maintenance capital expenditures. We believe that the presentation of Distributable Cash Flow in this report provides information useful to investors in assessing our financial condition and results of operations. In addition, our Board of Directors utilizes reserves for future capital expenditures, compliance with law or debt agreements, and to provide funds for distributions to unitholders in respect to any one or more of the next four quarters. However, our Distributable Cash Flow may not be comparable to similarly-titled measures that other companies use. Distributable Cash Flow does not reflect changes in working capital balances.
