Item 2.06. Material Impairments.

On November 11, 2019, Emerge Energy Services LP (the “Partnership”) announced the closure of the Partnership’s Kosse operations, which includes a mine, wet plant and dry plant. The Partnership expects that the facilities, which are located in Kosse, Texas, will continue to operate through the end of November and then wind down operations by the end of December. After December, the Kosse facilities will be idled while the Partnership continues to evaluate the facilities in light of prevailing market conditions.

The Partnership’s good faith estimate of the costs associated with the action described above is anticipated to be immaterial, and the Partnership anticipates that the idling of the Kosse facilities will result in a non-cash impairment in the fourth quarter of 2019 and estimates the range of charge could be between $8.0 - $17.6 million.
